Cookie Policy

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your device when you visit a website. They help websites function properly and provide insights into how visitors interact with the site.

How we use cookies

We use the following types of cookies on our website:

- Essential cookies: These cookies are necessary for the website to function properly. They enable core functionalities such as allowing job applications. Without these cookies, some parts of the website may not work as intended.
- Analytics cookies: We use Google Analytics to collect anonymous information about how visitors use our website. This helps us improve the website's functionality and user experience. These cookies track metrics such as visitor numbers, page views, and traffic sources but do not personally identify you.

Managing cookies

You can manage or disable cookies through your browser settings. However, please note that disabling essential cookies may affect your ability to use certain features, including the job application process.

For more information on how Google Analytics handles data, please visit: Google's Privacy & Terms.

Updates to this policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on this page with an updated revision date.

If you have any questions about our use of cookies, please contact us at info@fjwilson.com
